

Welcome to Tall Timber & the Rainbow Grille & Tavern

Checkout our Things to Do list along with the Calendar of Events. → Also, on the back of this list there's even more Fun Things to do in & around Pittsburg.

Where's Melvin! He's out on the trails just waiting for you to find him. Take a "selfie" & post it on the Pittsburg Ridge Runners Facebook page.

Visit the Pittsburg Ridge Runners Warming Hut, open on Saturdays from 10 to 3 starting in January. They serve delicious soups, "Hut Dogs", desserts and more.

Ride Trail #143 to Diamond Ridge to experience the 360° vista of Pittsburg, Maine and Canada. Be sure to have Ritz Crackers with you to feed the Gray Jays. They will literally eat right out of your hand!

Open Snowmobile Weekends - Ride FREE in ME, NH and almost free in VT. It's a win/win for riders staying in Pittsburg. See the weekend dates on the Calendar of Events.

Are you looking for a great place for lunch while out on the trails? Here's a list of trailside pit stops you should try.

- The Buck Rub Pub
- Full Send Bar & Grill
- Grampy's Drive-In
- The PRR Warming Hut, open on Saturdays.
- Black Bear Tavern, Colebrook
- April's Maple, Averill, VT

You will need trail passes to ride in Maine and Vermont.

For you X-Country skiers and snowshoe enthusiasts, there are many places to explore Pittsburg's wilderness. Try the CT's Falls in the River Trail, and the Fishermen's Trail. Pack a lunch and have a trail side picnic. Adult & child size snowshoes and our XC/ Snowshoe trail brochure are available in the Main Lodge all FREE!

How about perfecting your Triple Axel. Pittsburg's public skating rink is located at the Town Common. Bring your ice skates or borrow a pair available in the Skate Shack.

Have fun playing in the snow and we hope you enjoy your stay at Tall Timber & the Rainbow Grille & Tavern.

More “Fun Things to Do” In Northern NH & VT’s Northeast Kingdom

- Visit April’s Maple Sugar House in Averill, Vermont. Learn how maple syrup is made and enjoy a free sample of nature’s liquid gold. They have lots of maple products to take home too. April’s is accessible by snowmobile with a VT trail pass or visit on the Ride VT Weekend - Jan. 26, 27 and 28th, registration cost is $25 per snowmobile. Vermont requires liability insurance.
- Star gazing in Pittsburg is amazing with its dark night sky. The Milky Way and the constellations look close enough to touch.
- Go search for Moose Antler Sheds in January. You’ll need to get up super early and head out on your snowmobile to find them.
- Visit Pittsburg’s NEW boutiques. North of the 45th Apparel Company - Super fun clothing, hats, funky sunglasses & more. The Urban Daughter - Details, details. Beautiful & unique clothing and home accessories to make your home all cozy. Up North Trading Company - Lots of fun things for everyone that likes “outdoorsy”. Great North Woods Gallery & More - Beautiful photography, pottery, and one of a kind pieces by local artisans and lots more. Bear Rock Adventures - Stylish clothing & footwear, beautiful home accessories, and top of the line snowmobile gear. Green Acres Country Store - A unique Gift Shop filled with so many beautiful things, and their delicious homemade “comfort food” made fresh daily and ready for Take Out. Be sure to try their “famous” Cinnamon Buns!
- NEW - 1840 Restaurant - Pittsburg’s new restaurant offering wood fired pizza and lots more. 1840 is located across from Pittsburg’s Town Common. Good food and a fun atmosphere. Check out the 1840.
- Explore the Cohos Trail in Pittsburg. Snowshoe the Falls in The River Trail and the Moose Alley Trail.
- Disconnect then reconnect with family and friends. Put down your devices and pick up an old fashioned board game, a jigsaw puzzle or a deck of cards. The lodge’s front office has what you need for a fun filled Family Game Night.
- X-Country ski the snowmobile trail from Lake Francis State Park to the River Road Covered Bridge. Park at the boat ramp and follow the snowmobile trail through the campground and continue until you reach the River Road Covered bridge. After your ski, stop at The Buck Rub Pub for a Hot Chocolate or perhaps a Hot Toddy. Midweek in January and March is the best time to ski this trail.
